

Name: _____

Date: _____

SS

chess

An 's' at the end of a one syllable word is doubled when it follows a short vowel.

Look, cover, write:

chess _____

press _____

fuss _____

kissed _____

missing _____

Write the missing words:

I _____ Dad goodbye before I went to school.

I need to _____ the button to ring the doorbell.

I like to play _____ with my sister.

My new shoes are _____!

Why did you make such a _____ about it?

Write the list in alphabetical order:

Circle the one-syllable base word in these words:

missing kissed messy dressed glossy guessed crossing pressing tossed misses pressed fussing bossed
guessing crosses stressed hissing mossy missed blessing

Add 'y' to these base words to create adjectives, then list objects that may be described by each adjective:

gloss glossy magazine pages,

moss _____

dress _____

boss _____

mess _____

fuss _____