

Delivery!

Narrative Writing Activity

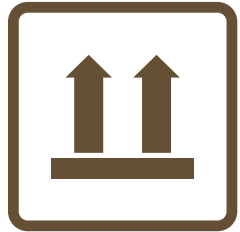

Study*ladder*

Have you ever seen warning stickers or printed symbols on delivery boxes? What do the symbols mean?

Packaging is recyclable.

Keep package this way up.

Package contents are breakable.

Keep package dry.

- What could be inside a box marked with these symbols?

Imagine:

What is in the box?

Why has it has been sent to you?

Who could it be from?

What will you do with it?

What problems could it cause?

How will you fix these problems?

- Your story needs to be written from the first person perspective.

You are telling the story so use the word “I”.

- Your story needs to be written in past tense.

You are retelling the events that occurred around the time of the delivery.

- Your story needs to include a detailed description of the item that is in the delivery box.

You will need to use adjectives to describe the look, feel, smell, sound or taste of the item.
