

Airport Story

Name: _____

Write a story about being at the airport. Use Studyladder's Airport Terminology lesson as a reference to make sure you use the correct vocabulary.

Write the story from first person perspective. This means you will use language such as 'I' and 'me'. You will be telling the story of what happened to you.

Location:

In what part of the airport will your story take place?

Your role:

Why are you at the airport? Are you a passenger or do you work there?

Other characters:

Who else will be in your story? How are they connected to you? Are you work mates or fellow passengers?

Possible events:

What problems could occur that the characters have to solve?

Possible Outcomes:

What might happen in the end of your story?
